California Meal & Rest Break Policy Acknowledgment

EMPLOYEE NAME	EMPLOYEE ID	POSITION
test test	5047	Security Officer

DATE

08/27/2026

MEAL PERIODS

Employees working more than five (5) hours in a workday are entitled to an uninterrupted, duty-free 30-minute meal period that must begin before the end of the fifth (5th) hour of work. Employees working more than ten (10) hours in a workday are entitled to a second meal period in accordance with California law. Meal periods must be: duty-free, uninterrupted, and at least 30 minutes. Employees are relieved of all duty during off-duty meal periods and are free to leave the premises subject to site restrictions.

ON-DUTY MEAL PERIODS

When the nature of the work prevents an employee from being fully relieved of all duties, California law permits an on-duty meal period only if a voluntary written agreement is entered into between the employee and Hammer Head Security. The Company does not require, coerce, or pressure employees to waive or skip meal periods. Entering into an on-duty meal period agreement is voluntary and not a condition of employment.

REST BREAKS

Employees are entitled to one paid ten (10) minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Rest breaks must be: duty-free, uninterrupted, and free from work responsibilities. Employees are not required to remain on-call or perform any work duties during rest breaks.

TIMEKEEPING AND OFF-THE-CLOCK WORK

Hammer Head Security strictly prohibits off-the-clock work. Employees must: accurately record all time worked; record meal periods when required; and not perform any work before clocking in or after clocking out.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT

Employees must immediately notify a supervisor, dispatch, SOC, or management if they are unable to take a compliant meal or rest break. Reporting a missed, delayed, or interrupted break will not result in discipline. Hammer Head Security strictly prohibits retaliation against any employee who reports missed, delayed, interrupted, or shortened meal or rest breaks.

PREMIUM PAY

Premium pay is provided as a legal remedy when a compliant meal or rest break is not provided and does not excuse or replace the Company's obligation to provide compliant meal and rest breaks in accordance with California law.

I acknowledge that I have received, read, and understand Hammer Head Security\'s Meal & Rest Break Policy. I am authorized and permitted to take all legally required meal periods and rest breaks.

BREAK MONITORING AND DOCUMENTATION

Hammer Head Security utilizes scheduling, dispatch, and/or SOC systems to support compliance with meal period timing requirements. The use of such systems is intended to: assist employees in taking timely meal periods; provide reminders when appropriate; and document communication and compliance efforts. These systems are support tools only and do not replace the Company's obligation to provide compliant breaks or the employee's responsibility to take and report breaks.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT

Employees must immediately notify a supervisor, dispatch, SOC, or management if they are unable to take a compliant meal or rest break. Failure to report may limit the Company's ability to address the issue. Employees should report any missed, delayed, interrupted, or shortened meal or rest break as soon as reasonably possible, and preferably within the same workday or pay period. Reporting a missed, delayed, or interrupted break will not result in discipline.

PREMIUM PAY

Premium pay is provided as a remedy when the Company fails to provide a compliant meal or rest break in accordance with California law. Premium pay will be provided when a compliant meal or rest break is not provided, regardless of whether the employee reports the issue at the time.

ANTI-RETALIATION

Hammer Head Security strictly prohibits retaliation against any employee who reports missed breaks, interrupted breaks, delayed breaks, or shortened breaks. The Company will investigate all reports and take appropriate corrective action.

I acknowledge that: this policy has been provided to me and reviewed with me during orientation; I have had the opportunity to ask questions and fully understand its terms; I am authorized and permitted to take all legally required meal periods and rest breaks; and meal periods must begin before the end of the 5th hour of work unless a lawful exception applies.

ISSUANCE AND COMPANY OWNERSHIP

Hammer Head will issue the company-owned distinctive uniform items required for the employee's assignment. All company-issued items remain company property at all times. Employees must sign an issuance record for company-issued items. Employees may not sell, loan, pledge, alter, conceal, or use company-issued uniform items for non-company purposes.

WEAR STANDARDS WHILE ON DUTY

Employees must report to duty in the complete assigned uniform for the post or event, neat in appearance, with company identifiers visible. This generally means the assigned company shirt or polo, jacket if issued or required by assignment, company badge or shield, arm patches, and any client-required tie or hat, together with any required plain black wardrobe items. Failure to comply with uniform standards may result in corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.

MAINTENANCE, CARE, AND REPLACEMENT

Hammer Head will provide and maintain company-issued distinctive uniform items required under this policy. Employees must follow reasonable care instructions, promptly report damage or sizing issues, and return company-issued items when a replacement or repair is requested. Employees are not charged for ordinary laundering, ordinary maintenance, repair, or normal wear and tear of company-issued distinctive uniform items.

RETURN OF COMPANY PROPERTY

All company-issued uniform items and related company property must be returned immediately upon separation of employment, transfer out of the assignment if requested, or earlier upon company demand. At separation, Hammer Head will not delay, condition, or reduce final wage payment based on whether company-issued items have been returned.

LOSS, DAMAGE, AND DISCIPLINE

Employees must immediately report any lost, stolen, damaged, or missing company-issued item to their supervisor. Normal wear and tear will not result in a charge. Intentional damage, unauthorized alteration, misuse, or deliberate failure to return company property may result in discipline and any other lawful remedy available to Hammer Head. Nothing in this policy authorizes Hammer Head to make a unilateral deduction from current wages or final wages for allegedly lost, unreturned, or damaged company-issued items.

I acknowledge receipt of Hammer Head Security\'s California Uniform and Uniform Deposit Policy. I understand this acknowledgment confirms receipt of the policy only and does not authorize any payroll deduction or final-pay withholding.

CANNABIS (MARIJUANA) POLICY – CALIFORNIA COMPLIANCE

While cannabis use is legal under California law: employees may not be impaired while working; employees may not possess or use cannabis on duty or on company property; and employees may not perform security duties while impaired. The company will base impairment determinations on the totality of observable circumstances, not on any single factor. Hammer Head Security does not discipline lawful off-duty cannabis use that does not result in workplace impairment.

REASONABLE SUSPICION INDICATORS

Testing may be required when a supervisor reasonably suspects impairment based on observable behavior, including: slurred speech; unsteady movement or coordination; erratic or unsafe behavior; confusion or impaired judgment; odor of alcohol or drugs; possession of drugs or paraphernalia; significant behavior changes. Odor alone will not be the sole basis for disciplinary action but may be considered along with other observable indicators.

The following may be considered refusal: refusing testing; failing to cooperate; delaying testing without valid reason; tampering with testing; providing false information. Refusal to test is considered a violation of company safety policy and may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

PRESCRIPTION AND OVER-THE-COUNTER MEDICATIONS

Employees must notify management of medications that may affect their ability to perform duties safely. Employees may not work in safety-sensitive roles if impaired by medication. Medical information will be handled confidentially.
